Crash Narrative:
Upon arrival, I observed a MV in the middle of Chestnut St/Marion St intersection with a bike underneath it and a female party laying on the ground about 10 feet from the MV. MV Operator stated that she was turning from Burlington Ave onto Chestnut Street through a yellow light when she struck the cyclist. She reported that when she turned onto Chestnut St the sun was in her eyes and she could not see the cyclist. The Cyclist reported that she was riding on Chestnut street. Then as she got to the intersection she attempted to turn around in the street to head back the opposite direction when she was struck by the vehicle. She reported that the light on Chestnut Street was green. She sustained injuries to her leg and lower back and was transported to Lahey. Note: Cyclist was not wearing a helmet. The bike was brought to the station with significant damage.
